THOSE WALNUT TREES at the railroad tracks at Campbell and Harrison that are depicted in our masthead are 80 years old. This we have learned from FRANK BLAINE, son of Judge John Blaine and a descendant of the original Campbell family who founded the town.

Frank has been doing some research for us on the history of the trees. The city has officially designated them as a park and The Press has put 'em in the name-plate, so we all thought we ought to know something about their background.

Here is Frank's report:

The Campbell Press
"Out On The Limb" Dept.
Dear George,

A visit with my aunt, Mrs. Lena French of Pacific Grove, verified the story told me by my mother, possibly twenty five years ago, about the origin of the walnut trees at Harrison and Campbell Avenues as follows:

The two large black walnut trees stand on part of the old Benjamin property, later deeded to his daughter, Laura, and her husband, William Swope.

Mrs. French, the youngest daughter of the Swopes, recalled the planting of the trees by her father in company with her two sisters, the late Mrs. Alda Blaine, wife of the former Judge John D. Blaine, and the late Mrs. Ethel Davis, a forelady for many years for the J. C. Ainsley Packing Company, whose buildings later occupied the area just north of the trees.

At eighty-five, Mrs. French is still active in Pacific Grove civic and social affairs. She remembered that being the youngest of the girls, then about five years, she had the job of carrying water in a bucket to keep the trees alive during their early days. The planting date was about 1885, making the trees eighty years old.

The name of your column "Out On The Limb" is well chosen and in keeping with the trees in the format. These trees have survived many stormy as well as peaceful eras, and we hope your column does too.

Sincerely,
Frank Blaine

SOME TIME AGO we touched on some of the various occupational hazards of different professions. You might recall that we mentioned that newspapering has been rated as an ulcer-provoking area, although physical injuries had been at a minimum in the profession in modern times.

We had become a little concerned, however, when SUE SMITH, IBM typist at The Press, broke a finger and was incapacitated and then the office manager,

Council meets tonight

As an after-math to the highly controversial issue of a shopping center at Hacienda-San Tomas that was turned down last week by the council by a 3-2 vote, the City Council tonight in a special meeting will discuss the possibility of master plan for the entire San Tomas area.

The special meeting has been called to complete the unfinished business of the regular meeting of August 23. Although the council did not adjourn until 2:30 a.m. Tuesday, many items on the agenda still remained to be acted upon at that time.

The master plan proposal, however, is a new item. It was placed on the agenda on the suggestion by Mayor Charles Rose. The mayor, in voting against the proposed shopping center, maintained that a master plan was needed for the entire area to avoid piece-meal developments and to ascertain whether such a shopping center as proposed by the Topaz Builders would fit into the over plan.

At the meeting tonight, the council is also expected to discuss the suggestion made by Robert Miller, American vice-consul in Tampico, that the City of Campbell and Ciudad

Planning Commission to reopen hearing

The uneasy truce in the "Battle of the drive-in" that has been in effect since Monday, August 16, is expected to be broken wide open next Tuesday, September 7, when the Planning Commission convenes at the city hall at 8 p.m.

On August 16 (rather at 1 a.m. the next day) the Planning Commission continued the public hearing to the next meeting on the use permit application for a drive-in theater to be located on the Brynteson Ranch at Campbell and Bascom avenues.

The continuance came after more than an hour of heated pro and con arguments. More of the same is expected at the continued hearing next Tuesday when another standing-room only crowd is expected.

Blast-off time is Tuesday instead of Monday because of the Labor Day holiday.

Residents in the adjacent areas are again expected to be out in force to offer objections to the location of an auto-movie establishment on the Campbell-Bascom property.

The use permit application has been filed by the Bank of America, representing the Brynteson estate, but United California Theater is listed as developers of the property.

Plans submitted call for a drive-in theater to be located on 14 acres of the southwest portion of the ranch. The 85-foot screen will be in the corner nearest the freeway and entrance and exit will be off Campbell Ave. opposite Union Ave.

Representatives of the theater firm have indicated that it is planned to develop the remaining 14 acres of the property commercially, similar to what United Theater has done in the Moonlite Shopping Center and drive-in theater complex in Santa Clara.

Petitions signed by hundreds of residents in the area opposing the drive-in have been submitted to the Planning Commission and the residents at the hearing next Tuesday are expected again to blast the proposal.

Leo Ruth, of the civil engineering firm that has drafted the plans for drive-in development, is spokesman for the group seeking the use permit. It is expected that the proponents next Tuesday will offer arguments refuting the statements made by the opponents at the first hearing.

Traffic problems and the noise factor are two main arguments that the opponents raised at the first hearing, although there was some mention of moral issues.

Auto hits power pole in Campbell

Electricity was cut off for nearly fifteen minutes in the downtown Campbell area on Monday afternoon when a car hit a utility pole at Latimer and Cloverdale Ave.

Campbell Police said Jeffrey G. Holland, 16, 264 Superior Dr. lost control of his 1954 Ford and smashed into the power pole at 1:30 p.m. The auto was completely wrecked. Three other Campbell youngsters were also in the car. There were no serious injuries.

Police arrest robbery suspect

Police are holding a San Jose man, Norman Kimble, 46, who has been tentatively identified as a suspect in the armed robbery of a Campbell dress shop.

Mrs. Mary Keenan, 45, proprietor of Lorrie's Fashions in Kirkwood Plaza, 1600 W. Campbell Ave., was alone in the shop about 6 p.m. on August 19, when the robbery occured.

Distinguished Campbell High grad speaks to local Kiwanis Club

Members of the Campbell Kiwanis Club and their guests at their luncheon meeting last week listened with interest and respect to a Campbell High graduate explain this country's goal in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization in Paris.

The speaker provided the group with first-hand information of the workings of NATO.

The graduate, who is on leave from his foreign service duties, was Philip J. Farley, now an American Foreign Service officer with the Department of State. He received his Campbell High diploma in 1931. Since March, 1962, he has served as minister-counselor for political affairs at the U.S. mission to NATO.

Farley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Farley, of Campbell. Born in Berkeley, Calif. in 1916, he attended the local schools and then the University of California at Berkeley where he received his bachelor, master's and PH. D. degrees. He served as an Army officer in World War II and two years as an intelligence specialist in the Defense Department. He was named chief of the policy staff of the Atomic Energy Commission and entered the State Department as a specialist in atomic energy affairs, disarmament and outer space in 1954.

He is married to the former Mildred Bowling, daughter of Mrs. Carrie Bowling of Sunnyvale. His wife attended Campbell High and San Jose State. The Farleys have three children, Paul, 23; Katherine, 18 and Kenneth, 8.

The top State Department official was introduced by his father, Guy, a charter member of the Campbell Kiwanis Club. A special guest at the luncheon was Richard Morton, a San Jose attorney and former Campbell mayor, who was a classmate of Phil's all through the Campbell school system.

Farley touched on the general policy of the United States in NATO and described some of the problems that exist in getting the full cooperation of fellow members of that organization. He also explained the functions of the various members of the U.S. staff and their relationship to the military.

After his talk, the speaker answered questions from members of the audience.

PREPARE FOR ART SHOW--Merchants in the Campbell Shopping Center (Winchester Blvd. at Latimer) on Friday and Saturday, Sept. 10-11, will sponsor the first sidewalk art show ever staged in town.

More than 100 paintings and other art work will be exhibited the entire length of the sidewalk in front of the stores in the center. The professional artists, members of the Pacific Independent Artists Cooperative, will be on hand to demonstrate and describe their work. Paintings may also be purchased.

Editorial

A word of caution

An indication of the many and varied activities that are taking place in this community as far as future developments are concerned is shown by the lengthy agendas of both the City Council and Planning Commission.

Recently the Planning Commission did not adjourn until 1:30 a.m. and the commission still had unfinished business.

The City Council met even longer. The council did not adjourn until 2:30 a.m. and then found that it was necessary to hold a special meeting, just to take care of the items still on the agenda.

Admittedly there were a couple of items in each case which overly prolonged the meetings. At the Planning Commission it was the drive-in theater issue. At the council it was the shopping center at San Tomas and Hacienda.

But even without those two issues which attracted a full house of interested spectators and participants, the agendas of both official city bodies were lengthy.

Zoning, public works, subdivisions, building plans, and countless other items that affect the present and future of the community must be acted upon by the official city agencies.

The Planning Commission is an advisory body to the council and the members are appointed by the City Council. Council members are elected by the people. Members of both bodies serve without pay and they are attempting to do their civic duty as they see it. They devote long hours to what is, in most cases, a thankless task.

They have extreme pressure applied to them time after time and they are often criticized and abused when their actions are contrary to what some people want.

True neither planning commissioners nor city councilmen have to serve. No one is holding a gun at their backs. When they agreed to serve they knew what they were getting into.

But this still does not alter the fact that the commissioners and city councilmen are making a determined effort on the whole to do a conscientious job as well as they can and as they see it.

To disagree with their actions at time is only at times is only natural.

There are two sides to every question. In some cases there are even more than two sides.

It would be impossible for a city council or a planning commission to please every segment of the community on every issue.

So there will be disagreements and that is as it should be. There cannot always be unanimous votes on any issue.

But there is one area is which we believe some soul-searching is needed.

We refer to the relationship between the planning commission and the city council itself.

While we hasten to admit that the planning commission is purely an advisory and recommending body and only in a few instances are the commission's actions final, we are firmly convinced that a recommendation of the planning commission to the city council has a special impact.

Before the commission acts, the entire matter has been studied, reviewed and researched. That is the function of the commission.

A mere cursory examination of the agendas of the commission and the city council reveals that there is a tremendous amount of activity on many fronts taking place within the city limits.

The City Council NEEDS the recommendation of the Planning Commission for the obvious reason that there is so much going on that an advisory body not only is helpful but necessary in the efficient conduct of city affairs.

Therefore, we caution the City Council to consider the Planning Commission recommendations carefully. Overruling a unanimous decision of the Planning Commission, in our opinion, defeats the purpose of the commission.

This was done in the controversial San Tomas-Hacienda shopping center issue.

We hold no brief for either side in this controversy.

We are only submitting a word of caution. A Planning Commission has a very definite function to perform in the area of plans and development of a city.

If the commission's decisions are not accepted, then it obviously follows that the commission is unnecessary.

But we are firmly convinced that this is not true; a planning commission is needed.

Two local boys hurt on cycle

Two Campbell brothers suffered head injuries and had their motorcycle smashed when they hit the side of an auto Friday evening. Ron Silva, 17, and his brother, Melvin, 12, of 164 Calado Ave. were thrown from their "Honda" when an auto pulled away from a stop in front of them at Latimer and Milton avenues, police said. Driver of the car was John R. Bishop, 41, of 161 Milton Ave.

The elder Silva boy suffered a fractured jaw. He was released from Campbell Community Hospital on Monday. He is a senior student at Campbell High School. The younger boy was treated for bruises and released. No citations have been issued pending further investigation by Campbell police.

FRANCES CLEVER, broke her back and was laid up for a spell.

Although injuries occurred off the job, we wondered if they were setting some sort of precedent. Fortunately (and we have our fingers crossed) lately we have been free of mishaps, although LYLE RAY, who filled in for Frances, came pretty close on the freeway.

So much for our operation.

Recently we learned that DICK MAYNE, deputy county coroner and former city councilman, suffered an injury in line of duty that sort of overshadows anything we could come up with.

Dick's duties, as you realize, generally take place after everything, including physical violence, is all over.

Coroner people have the morbid task of mopping up. But rarely are they in the line of fire, so to speak. The people they deal with are passed the stage of offering any resistance.

Yet recently Dick suffered a broken foot in line of duty while in the morgue.

And a dead person was responsible.

While he was in the morgue a body on a frame slipped from a table and landed on Dick's foot breaking several bones. In Dick's foot, that is.

So, every occupation has its hazards.

DRYTOWN, near Jackson in the Mother Lode country, during the summer months attracts visitors from all over each Saturday night when the Claypipers, a theatrical group from the Peninsula, present a "Melodrammer" in a highly professional style.

We recently took in one of these Saturday night dramas and thoroughly enjoyed the relaxation of vociferously booing the villain, cheering the hero and warning the heroine.

Of couse, it was pure corn. But it was well done and part of the fun is the audience participation. During intermission we ran across BILL DUNN, attorney from this area who also was getting a big bang out of the production.

Probably the basic reason we liked it was that it gave us a chance to give vent to our feelings orally.

Shucks, in real-life dramas, one doesn't get an opportunity to hiss the villain, although at some of the hearings in the city hall people come pretty close at times to doing just that.

A case in point were two recent hearings at the city hall, one on the drive-in theater issue and the other concerning the proposed shopping center at San Tomas and Hacienda.

In both instances, a partisan crowd showed their pleasure audibly when someone from their side spoke and their displeasure when the opponents had the floor.

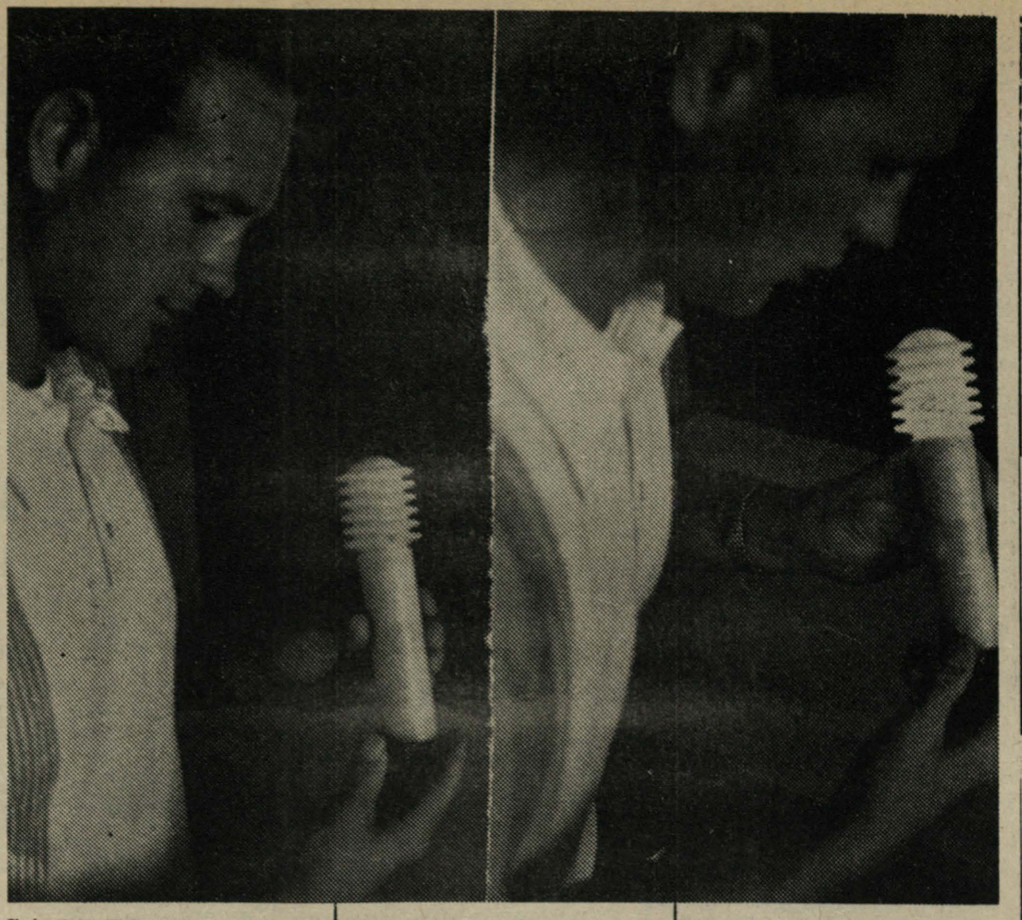
But FRED SAHADI, owner of a huge deluxe apartment house on Union Ave. just off Campbell Ave. sort of crossed everyone up when he spoke.

During the time the opponents were having their say, Sahadi got to his feet to ask a few pointed questions. It was assumed that he was opposed to the drive-in theater, so the audience was all set to applaud him when he finished.

But after he got his answers, he concluded that he wasn't opposed to the auto-movies.

The people were caught off-guard. They didn't know whether to hiss or cheer.

We didn't have that trouble in Drytown. It was obvious who was the villian. His mustache and cape gave him away before he said a line.



SAFETY WITH A TWIST--Jerry Duncan, vice-president of the Campbell Jaycees, demonstrates the new safety highway flare that Jaycee members will sell this Thursday from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m. at the Campbell Shopping Center at Winchester at Latimer. In the picture on the right the flare is glowing and is ready to start blinking after Duncan has merely twisted the base. (left) With the theme of "Take the scare out of flares", Jaycees have launched the safety project just prior to the long Labor Day weekend. The flares, designed especially for women because of its lightness and no flame, is operated on flashlight batteries. Phil Auger, chairman of health and safety, with Duncan will head the Jaycee sales force. The flare sells for $1.50.

WVC board refutes charge of unethical tactics

The chairman of the West Valley College Board of Trustees has sharply disputed a claim that his group had acted in a manner that was "legal, but not ethical" in arriving at its budget for 1965-66.

Robert W. Brydon flatly disputed a claim by a spokesman for a group known as "Taxpayers for Sound Junior College Management" that official notice of the junior college district's budget hearing was made only one day prior to the hearing. The spokesman reportedly branded board action as "legal but not ethical."

In a letter to the Santa Slara County Board of Supervisors, before whom, according to press reports, the charge had been made, Brydon noted that printed notice of the budget hearing appeared eight days prior to the actual hearing.

The charges by the taxpayer group reportedly were made on Aug. 23, when the supervisors set the junior college district tax rate at 65 cents, an increase of 10.8 cents over last year. The increase, Brydon has stated repeatedly is necessary because of the board's responsibility of educating an explosive student population at West Valley College.

"For the sake of the record," Brydon wrote the county supervisors, "we should like to inform you and your colleagues that...the proposed publication budget of the West Valley Joint Junior College District and the date of the public hearing thereon were published in the Campbell Press in the edition of July 23, eight days before the public hearing held on August 5."

In addition to the printed notice, Brydon wrote, a copy of the agenda for the August 5 meeting, which indicated that a public hearing on the proposed budget would be held on that date, was mailed to every newspaper and all other news media in the area on July 30, six days before the hearing.

On July 30, the notice was posted on the front door of the college, the usual and designated area for all agenda notices.

"My colleagues on the West Valley governing board join me in thanking you for fulfilling your responsibility in setting a tax rate necessary to meet the needs of the district, as reflected in the district's budget, despite the opposition expressed at your meeting," the letter concluded. "Our board is also appreciative of the support and encouragement which the Supervisors have given West Valley College since the time of its inception."

Council to meet

Madero of Mexico establish official sister city relations.

The vice-consul emphasized in a letter that, through the efforts of Fire Chief George Maxwell, who recently visited Madero, and the Campbell Firefighters Association, an excellent relationship has been established between the fire departments of the two cities. The Madero fire department has been the recipient of much needed equipment through the efforts of the Campbell group.

The vice-consul has suggested that this relationship might be expanded to include the cities as a whole on a sister city basis.

Also on tonight's agenda will be the report concerning the plans for beautifying the Hamilton Avenue median strip as suggested by the Campbell Garden Club.

The council is also expected to act on the purchase of property on Gilman Ave. next to the park which will give the city much needed parking space.

The council will also discuss the proposed purchase of a new Michigan loader to replace the city's present equipment. Bill Wren, acting public works director, has recommended the purchase of a larger loader and trading-in of the present machine. It will cost the city an additional $2200.

Also in the equipmen field, the council wil discuss the recommendation of the city sta that authorization b given to purchase 1966 Dodge highwa patrol vehicle from th state for $2,575.82.

A proposal that th city negotiate an agree ment with San Jo Water Works for th installation of a 12 water main on Dell an Division avenues f domestic and fire pro tection purposes is als on the agenda. Th cost of $30,500 for th installation will b spread on a propert assessment basis base on future developmen The city, under th proposal, would sub sidize the installatio until subsequent development occurs.

A proposed sidewal repair program t eliminate some of th hazards that now exis will also be presente by Wren for counc action.

Other continued item include reports on fir zones and constructio types and the establish ment of fees for specia city services.

LOOK AHEAD TO WINTER BLOOMS

If you act now, your garden need not lack for color this winter, according to the Calif. Association of Nurserymen. The main idea is to get the plants well on their way while the days are still long enough and the weather still warm enough.

Your nurseryman has all of the important winter color varieties on display now, or will have in a couple of weeks, depending upon where you live. Here's what to look for:

Pansies and violas begin to bloom within days after you set them out. Choose mixed colors in pansies and separate colors in violas - choice of yellow, blue, apricot or white. Both pansies and violas create startling effects in massed beds. Violas are also splendid foreground borders in front of taller annuals.

Would you like some cut flowers for the house, in addition to winter color in the garden? Try winter stock or snapdragons. Winter stock are generally massed as separate colors in shades of yellow, blue, pink, red or white. Snapdragons are used in mixed colors generally, but some kinds and colors are available separately.

For intermediate height, use the versatile calendulas in shades of yellow, gold and apricot. There is nothing better in the garden (or in the house) to brighten a cold winter day. Use them as a foreground border if your space is limited, otherwise mass them in sunny beds.

Does your taste run to dainty flowers? Then the Fairy Primroses are for you! The airy spikes of pink, red, lavender or white flowers are best described as "charming". This popular winter-flowering subject is treated as an annual - not to be confused with the spring-blooming perennial English primrose with the larger flowers. The Fairy Primroses, like violas, pansies and calendulas, lend themselves perfectly to either borders or mass planting. Your nurseryman recommends using them as straight colors - not mixed.

How about some sweet peas, for winter cutflowers? Most nurseries have seedlings growing in plantbands, as well as nets on which to train your plants. If you are a "start-from-scratch" type gardener you may wish to begin with the fresh seed on racks in the nursery now.

For color in shade, gardeners in the milder winter sections of California use cinerarias. Two distinct types are available - the "stellata" make large plants loaded with medium-sized flowers, excellent for distant viewing. The dwarf "grandifloras" produce clusters of large individual flowers on smaller plants and these are desired for close-up viewing.

Whatever your choice, keep in mind that soil preparation has a great deal to do with a successful planting. Work the beds to a depth of a foot, incorporating at the same time soil amendment recommended by C.A.N. nurseryman - which may be steer manure, redwood compost, peat moss, or similar material.

Rake the beds smooth and set in the plants with as much soil from the flat as possible. A putty knife is a good tool for this purpose: Firm the plants into the soil and water with a soft stream from your hose immediately. Spread snail and slug pellets at once. A week after planting you can apply a mild liquid food solution. Feed again in a month and spread fresh snail pellets frequently.

SPACE SAVER--Gale Rhodes, secretary to Police Chief John Morgan, is ready to process a report on the new micro-film machine at police station. In addition to saving much-needed space, the process can also reproduce an individual record for immediate examination. The machine costs $450 but Chief Morgan expects the saving of both time and space to soon offset the initial cost.

Center offers business course

An occupational training program for calculating machine machine operators, cashiers and merchandising clerks will start this fall at Campbell Adult School, 1945 Winchester Road, Campbell.

Orientation meetings for students will be held on September 8 and 15 at 7:00 p.m., Campbell Adult Center by instructor in the program.

According to E. P. Stanley, director, this service to persons with some previous experience or training provides opportunity for upgrading and placements in a better job.

Equipment for the program has been provided through a vocational education act grant on a matching basis with Campbell Union High School District.

Interested persons can phone Campbell Adult Center 379-4710 for information or an appointment, or can call at the center for enrollment.

The fall semester enrollment in all classes will continue from 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. through the month of September. Opening date for the fall semester has been set at Monday, September 13, 1965. Schedules may be obtained at the Adult Center.

SOCIAL SECURITY

Questions and Answers

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE
SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION

by
Gladstone A. Boquist

Q. I am a farmer over 73 years old and I have been receiving social security benefits for five years. My net income from the farm was $800 last year. Do I still have to report this and pay the tax?

A. Yes, you must file a self-employment tax return and pay the tax if your net income was $400 or more, regardless of your age or whether you are receiving benefits. If you have not reported this to the Internal Revenue Service, you should do so at once.

Q. I am a self-employed farmer almost 65 years old. I have been paying social security since 1955 when farmers were included. How can I be sure I have enough quarters of coverage to get social security if I sell my farm now? How many quarters will I need?

A. As a self-employed farmer you get credit for four quarters of coverage each year you report. To see if you have enough quarters, you should get a statement of your earnings. Your social security office has a post-card form to use for this purpose. We cannot answer your second question because you did not give your age. A man who becomes 65 in 1965 needs 14 quarters of coverage. For information on how to figure the number of required quarters, you may request pamphlet No. 855 from our office.

A RECENT BRIDE - Mrs. Stephen N. Rettke (Elizabeth Marie Rice).

Elizabeth Rice is bride at First Methodist Church

Over 400 friends and relatives witnessed the marriage of Elizabeth Marie Rice to Stephen N. Rettke at the First Methodist Church of Campbell. Rev. William B. Gould officiated at the double ring ceremony at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The attractive brunette bride was given in marriage by her father, Herman Y. Rice Sr. Her wedding gown of Chantilly lace featured a graceful tiered skirt and a sequin trimmed bodice with long sleeves. A crown of seed pearls secured an elbow length veil and she carried a cascade of white rose buds encircling a Bible.

Four former classmates from Campbell High School attended the bride. Miss Janet Fair was the maid of honor. She was attired in a gown of white embossed cotton, aqua daisies trimmed bouffant skirt and she carried a dainty French bouquet. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Jerry Miller (Joan Shirley), Mrs. Charles Warren (Ida Grisset) and Mrs. Steve Kallam (Phyllis Romero). Their white gowns and bouquets were similar to the maid of honor. The four daughters of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Kennedy of Willows also participated in the wedding. Mrs. Kennedy is a sister of the bride. Misses Deborah and Yvonne Kennedy served as candlelighters and Misses Sherril and Laurie Kennedy passed out favors at the wedding reception that followed. Little Diane Rice was the flower girl and Jeffrey Maack served as the ring-bearer.

Herbert Rettke, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man and ushers were Ignacio Herreia, Rodger Shauer, and James Reed. Mrs. Evelyn Buck sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "Because".

A reception was held in the gardens of the home of the bride's parents in Saratoga. The happy couple cut a four tiered wedding cake after greeting their guests. Following a wedding trip to the Great Lakes area they will make their home in San Jose.

The new Mrs. Rettke is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Y. Rice of 18920 Sunnybrook Court, Saratoga. She is a graduate of Campbell High School and attended San Jose City College. She is a member of Campbell Bethel 174 of Job's Daughters and is presently employed by I. B. M. Corp. in San Jose.

Stephen is the son of Herbert Rettke of Detroit, Michigan, and Mrs. J. McKearn of Salinas. He attended schools in Detroit and served two years with the U. S. Army. He is currently attending San Jose City College and employed by I. B. M. in San Jose.

Social Side

Leave it to the girls ! They'll get job done !

Driving down the extension on Hamilton Ave. from Winchester to San Tomas Road will be a pleasure this fall, not only due to the new street, but due also to the enthusiasm and hard work of a group of club women in the Campbell Garden Club. They have dedicated themselves to the community project of planting the eight divider strips down the center of Hamilton Ave. with asthetic groupings of eucalyptus trees and a ground covering of "Mirror Plant."

The project has the wholehearted approval of the City Council and the Acting City Engineer, Bill Wren. Wren indicated the city would do the planting, provide maintenance and water.

The project will take at least $2,000 and the Garden Club will hold a raffle to raise money to purchase the trees. They will solicit public support of the raffle and will erect a thermometer at Hamilton Ave. to inform the residents on the progress of the campaign.

The divider strip nearest to Winchester will be planted first as a model.

According to Mrs. Minnie Snyder, president of the Campbell Garden Club, the eucalyptus trees are fast growing and will reach maturity in four years. They have been recommended for this location by the Santa Clara Horticultural Society and traffic conditions, wind and dust have all been taken into consideration.

Mrs. Ward Brannon and Mrs. James Hartman are co-chairmen of the Hamilton Avenue Beautification Project. The Campbell Garden Club, organized in 1947, has as its purpose to "improve homes and gardens and beautify the community." The City Fathers are so impressed with the project they have invited the club women to come forth with other suggestions to beautify Campbell.

Any citizen wishing to make a donation to this project may call Mrs. James Hartman--378-5167.

OUTDOOR COOKERY IS FUN
BARBECUE BEEF BUNDLES

Try cooking individual dinners in metal wrap on your outdoor grill. Beef Bundles are whole meals of beef, vegetables and sauce, sealed into a package of foil. Prepare them ahead of time. Let them chill in the refrigerator until you are ready.

2 large zucchini, sliced
1 lb. tender beef (round steak) cut in 3/4 inch cubes
12 small onions, peeled (or No. 2 can onions)
2 large potatoes, peeled & quartered
2 large tomatoes, halved
salt and pepper

Tear off four 12 inch sheets of foil wrap. Onto each piece of foil pile portions of zucchini, beef cubes, 3 onions, 2 potatoe pieces, and half tomato. Season to taste. Bring edges of foil together and seal. Place on grill and cook for 50 minutes. Turn package occasionally. Serve with heated hard rolls and green salad.

CALIFORNIA BARBECUE SAUCE

1/2 cup honey
2/3 cup soy sauce
2/3 cup ketchup
1 tsp. dry mustard
1 tsp. paprika
1/2 tsp. tabasco sauce
1 clove garlic
1 tsp. salt
1 cup orange juice
1 cup wine vinegar

Combine ingredients. Mix well.

CALIFORNIA BARBECUE SPARERIBS

4 to 5 lbs. spareribs (cut in two pieces)
salt and pepper, to taste
California Barbecue Sauce

Brown spareribs on grill over moderate fire, turning them once or twice. As soon as spareribs have browned on grill, transfer to foil pan (made of double thickness of foil with edges turned up) and spoon over the meat about 1 cupful of barbecue sauce. Place the foil pan on center of grill and continue cooking for about 1 hour longer. Baste with sauce occasionally. To serve, transfer foil pan to platter. Ribs separate easily when cut with sharp knife. Serves 6 - 8.

To play own composition

Sandra Kay Sandlin, young pianist and composer, will be the guest of the Stanislaus County Branch of the Music Teachers Association of Calif. at their meeting in Modesto on Sept. 8 to play her composition "Canonette".

Sandra, age 11, is a student of Mrs. Kathleen S. Bergeron of Campbell, and has been given an award for her composition at a recent convention of the MTAC.

San Jose State extension plans 100 courses

More than 100 courses will be offered in evening sessions during the fall semester by the Extension Services of San Jose State College, according to Dr. Frank G. Willey, coordinator of the extension program.

About 20 subject areas will be covered in the courses which will be offered in a four county area. In Santa Clara County, 63 classes are scheduled, 19 in Monterey County, and seven each in Santa Cruz and San Mateo Counties. Other courses will be offered as the need arises.

Most of the classes begin September 20 or later. Fees for the classes, most of which are two- or three-unit courses, is $13 per unit. Time and place of class meetings will be announced later.

Those interested in extension classes may write the SJSC Extension Services, 319 So. 5th St., San Jose, for a copy of the latest bulletin or call 294-6414 ext. 2211.

WORK FOR WV LIGHT OPERA ASSOCIATION - Love of the theater runs in this family. All of them have performed in some capacity in the Theater Arts and now they are helping with the membership drive of the West Valley Light Opera Association. Pictured here (left to right) are Mrs. Mable Bostwick, grandmother, Martin Bostwick, father; Mrs. Maude Keller, great grandmother and Elaine Bostwick (center) daughter, all of 2910 Neal Ave. (See story)

West Valley Light Opera group seeks members

The West Valley Light Opera Association is now conducting a membership drive and fund-raising campaign. The interest and support of the public is solicited to help this community cultural organization continue to bring fine family entertainment to this area.

In the past the organization has produced "Oklahoma" and "The Unsinkable Molly Brown" which were well-received here. They have presented their productions on the stage of the West Valley College Auditorium.

Paul B. Santos is president of the Association, and other officers are Capt. Rosseter P. Maurice, vice president; Martin S. Bostwick, vice president; Jenalee Clark, secretary; John V. Publicover, treasurer; Heber N. Teerlink, and Loretta G. Ricketts, membr members of the board. All donations are tax deductible and may be sent to P. O. Box 779, Los Gatos, Calif. For information concerning membership call Mrs. Mable Bostwick at 248-5076.

Their first show of the 1965-66 season will be "Here's To Love", a musical version of "Miracle on 34th Street." It will be presented at the local college auditorium on Friday and Saturday nights during the month of November. Auditions are being held at Los Gatos High School at 7:30 p.m. tonight. (Wednesday)

To become a voting member of the organization the fee is $10. A sponsoring membership is $25. However, donations of any size, from $1.00 up are welcome and appreciated. Checks should be made payable to the West Valley Light Opera Assoc.

Cub Scouts

Cub Pack 337

Pack 337 has had a full summer of activities. It all began in June when the group attended a ball game at Candlestick Park as guests of the Giants.

The Family Picnic was held in July at Oak Meadow Park. After the Cubs grilled hot dogs and enjoyed a pot luck supper, races were held. Prizes were given to the winners of the sack, three-legged and wheelbarrow races.

August is the time for Junior Olympics. This year they were held on August 25th. The Cubs, divided according to age, participated in the Broad Jump, High Jump, 50 yard dash, Pole Vault and Shot put. Ribbons were awarded to the following Cubs for their athletic achievements:

Javelin Throw: Age 8--Alan Faulk; Wayne Brush; Alan Roland. Age 9--Blane Clapp, Mike McKenzie; Jeff Roy, Frank Klein; Curt Russell, James Garcia. Age 10--Lynn Brush; Dirk McKenzie; Mike Herzig. Age 11--Robert Paul; Eric Peterson, Richard Aldrich.

Shot Put: Age 8--Wayne Brush, Alan Roland, Don Herzig. Age 9-- Jeff Roy, M. McKenzie; C. Russell, J. Garcia; B. Clapp, F. Klein. Age 10--D. Mc Kenzie, Lynn Brush, M. Herzig. Age 11--Eric Peterson, R. Paul, Stuart Timms.

Broad Jump: Age 8--A. Roland, W. Brush, D. Herzig. Age 9--M. McKenzie, J. Roy; F. Klein, C. Russell; J. Garcia, B. Clapp. Age 10--L. Brush; M. Herzig; D. McKenzie. Age 11--S. Timms, R. Aldrich; Mike Fulton.

High Jump: Age 8--W. Brush, D. Herzig, A. Faulk; Age 9--B. Fulton, J. Roy; F. Klein, C. Russell; M. McKenzie, Steve Heidenreich. Age 10--D. McKenzie, L. Brush, M. Herzig. Age 11--S. Timms, R. Paul, R. Aldrich.

50 Yd. Dash: Age 8--W. Brush, A. Roland, D. Herzig. Ager D. Herzig. Age 9--M. McKenzie, J. Roy; F. Klein, C. Russell; J. Garcia, B. Clapp. Age10--D. McKenzie, Lynn Brush, M. Herzig. Age 11--R. Paul, S. Timms, E. Peterson.

Pack 337 still has more in store this summer. On September 11, they will have their yearly Father and Son Outing. This years trip will be to Big Basin. More details will be sent to the Pack Parents via a letter from the Cubmaster.

The September Pack Meeting will be held at Castro Junior High School on September 22nd at 7:30 P.M. Parents please note the new location for Pack meetings.

We are looking forward to another interesting and exciting year. For both boys and parents, Cubbing is a wonderful rewarding experience.

Talent search

"Who Will Be Sebastian?" is the query of the Los Gatos-Saratoga Community Theatre in their search for a linguist with acting experience to play the urbane bulter in Noel Coward's "Nude With Violin," the opening play of the drama group's 1965-66 season, to be seen starting Oct. 21, at the Saratoga City Theatre on Fruitvale Avenue.

Tryouts for the cast of the English comedy to be directed by Ben Johnson, are being held now. Anyone interested in acting experience is invited to call 356-1658.

San Jose Chorus seeks members

Auditions for membership in the San Jose Municipal Chorus will be held at Chorus Headquarters, 1771 Grace Ave., San Jose, on Monday, September 13, and Friday, September 17, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Concert dates this Fall will be the "Festival of Carols" on Saturday evening, December 4, and Handel's "Messiah" on Sunday afternoon, December 5. Performances will be given in the Scottish Rites Temple, 3rd and St. James, under the direction of Reginald G. Greenbrook.

Detailed information about Chorus membership will be given on the evenings of audition. Mrs. Ruby Goodnight, Personnel Secretary, may be reached by phone at 377-3843 to answer questions regarding auditions, or call 248-1038 evenings.

Basic Chorus membership requirements are:

(1) Possession of an acceptable singing voice;

(2) The ability to carry a vocal part;

(3) The enthusiasm to work for a finished Choral performance.

The Chorus is currently on its 42nd season. Rehearsals are held each Monday evening at 7:30 p.m. in the Auditorium of the Hester School, 1460 The Alameda. First rehearsal will be on Monday, September 20.

Mrs. Lowry is AAUW chairman

Campbell resident, Mrs. John R. Lowry, 2198 Anthony Drive, has been appointed local chairman of the new "Conservation" study group of the American Association of University Women.

"We are planning to explore the great need for public action in the conservation field," stated Mrs. Lowry, "and hope to determine how the private citizen can most effectively influence public policy in this area."

The group will study many aspects of conservation, emphasizing the need for open areas in rapidly expanding metropolitan districts. Air and water pollution will also be examined. "As a result of our study", said Mrs. Lowry, "we will perhaps be able to develop several specific recommendations."

Three other study topics and their chairmen have also been announced by Mrs. Holt. They are Mrs. Grendon Gilkey, who will chair the "Education: An Antidote to Poverty" topic, Mrs. Charles Konecny heading "Science: A Creative Discipline", and "Revolution in Modern China" with Mrs. Richard Shamis as its chairman.

The four study groups meet monthly, and are open to all AAUW members. Section meetings with subjects ranging from government to gourmet cooking are also part of the group's activities. College graduates interested in joining the organization should contact Mrs. Robert H. Rosenquist, Membership Chairman, at 266-6704.

Garden Club meets Sept. 8

Clyde Robin will be the guest speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the Campbell Garden Club on Wednesday, Sept. 8, at 1 p.m. His subject will be "Some Experiences in Collecting Native Flora." The meeting will be in the Fireside Room of the Congregational Church, 400 W. Campbell Ave. A board meeting will be held prior to the regular meeting at 12 o'clock.

MY APPOINTED ROUND, 929 Days as Postmaster General by J. Edward Day

This is one of the funniest, frankest and most controversial books to come out of the Kennedy administration. from the former Postmaster General whose many achievements included the implementation of the Zip Code system.

Revealing how political patronage ruled the post office, even in the New Frontier, J. Edward Day discloses that he was treated like a combination of Jim Farley, Boss Tweed and Santa Claus, whose job it was to dip into a bottomless barrel and dispense as many jobs as stamps. My Appointed Round will not only fascinate all those who want inside information about Washington. It will also delight those who are just looking for a very funny book.

THE BLOCK BUSTERS by Lou Cameron

Real Estate swindles, race riots, and the tragic exploitation of prejudice, all are exposed in Lou Cameron's novel.

The taut national, religious and racial antagonisms of a typical city are all laid bare with results that will shock you. Using his first-hand background as a newspaper reporter, Cameron has written a powerful indictment of one of America's most shameful problems.

THE LONG VOYAGE by Jorge Semprun

This novel has the theme of the 5 day train ride which the narrator and 119 other prisoners took in the winter of 1943, in a padlocked box car on their way to a German concentration camp. The Long Voyage shows us the Concentration Camps as an eminent possibility of human behavior that, even in 1965, is far from dead.

In recreating the story of one prisoner, Semprun has constructed a concise and moving epic of our time. The novel is the winner of the third Formèntor Prize, and international $10,000 award established in 1960 by publishers from 6 countries, to encourage new writings.

We encourage this kind of employee "moonlighting"

When a Kaiser Aluminum employee devotes his after-hours time to coaching a boys' ball team, or to local school or government problems, or to any kind of volunteer community service, we're proud of him (or her!).

We hope you are, too!
For it is this kind of citizen—"moonlighting" in these ways—who makes this a more stable community for all of us...and a finer place both to live and to work.

County schools get 60-cents of each property tax dollar

Santa Clara County taxpayers pay 60 cents out of each property tax dollar for schools, compared to the statewide average of 51 cents, George R. Reilly of the State Board of Equalization has revealed.

Reilly, Vice Chairman and First District Member of the Board, also disclosed that on the average 31 cents of the tax dollar goes to the county, cities get 12 cents and remaining 6 cents goes to special districts.

This compared to Santa Clara County's share of 23 cents, the cities' 13 cents and 4 cents to special districts.

Reilly said the rates were compiled for the 1964-65 year in the Board's normal course of computing, with the assistance of Controller Alan Cranston's office, the tax rate for the 1965 assessments of private railroad cars.

The average 1964-65 property tax rate for California was $8.31 per $100 of assessed value, up 31 cents from the preceding fiscal year. Santa Clara County's comparable totals were $8.15 for 1964-65 and $7.68 for 1963-64.

Fifty-eight counties, some 390 cities, 1,545 school districts, and 3,460 other special-purpose districts levied $3.05 billion in taxes in the fiscal year just ended on property assessed at $36.7 billion.

Of the total tax, $1.5 billion was levied by school districts, $943 million by counties, $383 million by cities, and $178 million by special districts, Reilly said.

Cities in Santa Clara County levied a total of $20,651,000; the county $35,719,000, school districts a total $6,879,000.

WHAT'S WRONG WITH A DRIVE-IN?

So we seem to be having a problem with a new drive-in theatre. As far as I can see we need more of this thing for our youngsters, to keep them "close in" instead of clear across town in some other drive-in theatre late at night...and for our young families who enjoy a real movie now and then instead of T.V. That movie should be flanked with an ice cream parlor and a roller rink too.

As far as morals go. That's a real laugh... You'd think the people that brought that one up were never young...or either they spend their time at drive-ins peeping in car windows instead of watching the movies. About the traffic... Union and Campbell are the issue not Bascom and Campbell.

A nice fence with green foliage is a darn sight nicer to look at than another shopping center and one or two more gas stations... Heaven knows we don't need anymore gas stations nor do we need more stores. We already have so many "new" shopping centers with too many little dress shops and pizza parlors going out of business every six months or so.

You'd be surprised at how many "good" neighbors signed those petitions that hardly even know Campbell exists... They don't care about the town nor do they shop there. They all run to Valley Fair or West Gate so they can park (a mile from the stores). I shop as much as possible in this town and if all my neighbors did the same...why, we'd really have something wonderful. They say "can't find a place to park"...when what they really mean is "too lazy to walk a few blocks to the store from the place they parked". Our little town is more compact and has better bargains than Valley Fair and its "modern" 100 yard dash parking lots.

I've heard folks say "need a new shopping center"...Are they out of their minds?..If they can't walk a few blocks in Campbell... they sure as heck won't walk to that shopping center...When I saw the names of some of my friends on that petition I was sick... They don't shop in Campbell...They think they live at Valley Fair...not the City of Campbell.

How can a well kept-clean drive-in run your property down? What can run down our town is another shopping center..stealing business.

"Noise" I heard another say as they grabbed the pen and signed away...If you're awake at 1:30 a.m. you'll hear it for about 15 to 30 minutes while the traffic disperses into nothingness. And if you're on the road at that time...so what... you're contributing to the traffic too. The theaters are equipped with inside speakers and you'd be surprised how very quiet people are when they have sleeping tots in their cars. There is the minimum of "honking" when the movie lets out.

There are many reasons why people may not want a drive-in theatre, but traffic and morals aren't the reasons...What they are I don't know. I would welcome the thought of my kids being near home as possible on their theatre night instead of hot rodding clear across San Jose and up and down the highway and freeways in the middle of the night. They can't hot rod far, if they're near home now can they?

I asked the lady who circulated the petition a few questions and then got my Campbell Press to prove to her the location of the drive-in...backed up to the freeway...She thought it was to be backed up to Bascom and McBain.

It gets my goat...that so many people jump off the deep end and sign such a petition. That petition is worthless...and, as you said, George, "The squeaky wheel gets the most grease."

Signed...Not against or in favor; just against the way this thing is being done.

State closes 'back door' to Yosemite from September 13-17

State Highway 120, which serves as a back door to Yosemite National Park, will be closed to all traffic at historic Tioga Pass from September 13 through September 17.

These dates were selected, says California Division of Highways District 9 Engineer C. A. Shervington, because they will cause the least inconvenience to Labor Day weekend vacationers and to summer tourists.

Modifications and improvements at Tioga Pass were started three years ago. This lenghty construction period had been necessary because the annual heavy snowfalls at the 9,500-foot level where it is located permit crews to work only a few months each summer.

The job to be accomplished during the coming closure is the construction of a permenent bridge. At present, traffic is carried over a temporary bridge. Workmen have been erecting a permanent structure beneath it, and now it is necessary to remove the temporary construction and make connections to the permanent crossing.

Although a lofty climb under the best conditions, Route 120 between U. S. 395 near Lee Vining and the eastern edge of Yosemite National Park is becoming increasingly popular with California drivers. In July, 30,000 vehicles traveled over it although it had to be closed temporarily for several hours on week days when blasting operations were required to remove rock from the sheer cliffs that hampered progress. Much of the work was done on week nights when the road was less busy.

Shervington stated that there is no alternative to closing the road at this time because this phase of bridge construction must be completed prior to the first heavy snow fall. He emphasized the fact that every effort will be made to have it open again as soon as possible to accommodate expected traffic generated by deer hunters.

THE WINNERS--Gulping down their milk shakes are three of the winners of The Campbell Press' third annual Summer Circulation Contest. First place winner Joe Giorgianni (l.) displays his trophy along with second place winner Jeff Coker. Looking on is Dud (Craig) Chicoine (r.) who placed fourth in the contest and has been selected the second "Carrier of the Month" of August.

Top Campbell Press carriers view big Dodger - Giant brawl

The recent baseball brawl between the San Francisco Giants and the Los Angeles Dodgers at Candlestick Park was viewed by the top five winners of the recently concluded Campbell Press Summer Circulation Contest. The carriers were taken to the game as a reward for their efforts in obtaining new subscribers for the Press.

More than 700 new subscribers were netted in the contest with 40 Campbell Press carriers participating. Joe Giorgianni won the first place trophy for the second summer in a row. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Giorgianni of 737 Ricky Court. Second place was captured by Jeff Coker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coker of 1797 Campbell Ave.

The other carriers attending the Giants baseball game included Elwood Wilson, who placed third in the contest of 2166 Quito Rd., Dud (Craig) Chicoine, fourth place, of 563 W. Rincon Ave., and Corky (Pat) Corcoran, fifth place, of 1171 W. Latimer Ave.

The 12 Campbell Press carriers who placed sixth through seventeenth in the contest were awarded tickets to all three baseball games of the San Jose Bees 4th Annual Scholarship Series on Sept. 1, 2 and 3.

These carriers included Rocky Cattaneo, 1039 Audrey; David Borg of 12584 Paseo Flores; Tim Fuller of 1472 Picadilly Place; Dan Hellevig of 1429 Westmont Ave.; Dave Goodman of 1352 Bent Dr.; Robert Diez of 1176 Erin Way; Ross Meinhold of 1680 Palo Santo Dr.; Steve Rosenthal of 898 Torrero Plaza; Mike Perry of 1171 Lenore; Mark Brusashetti of 80 El Caminito; Fred Sanchez of 969 Bucknam; and Ricky McLafferty of 4586 Alex Drive.

Last week Kurt Ritter was honored by fellow members of the staff of The Press at a barbecue at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Vierhus on Ridgeley Drive. Sharing honors with him was Miss Ellen Floyd of Sunnyvale whose engagement to Kurt was recently announced. A "special" edition of The Press was presented to the honored guests.

All The Campbell Press carriers have just begun a new contest under the direction of circulation manager Mrs. Shirley Hess. Every carrier who obtains ten new subscribers will attend the annual news carriers day at the Santa Clara County Fair where their day at the fair will include free rides, pie-eating contests and three-legged races.

County assesses at 23.4% rate of cash value

The State Board of Equalization has announced that Santa Clara County assessed its property at 23.4 per cent of its full cash value, a key factor in state school aid.

Vice Chairman George R. Reilly said that the board found the 58-county weighted average was 21.8 per cent for the 1965-66 fiscal year.

Santa Clara County's ratio, together with its ratios of the two previous years, will be used by the Department of Education to compute state aid to school districts.

The Board is empowered September 2 to raise or reduce assessed values--the basis for tax rates--in those counties whose assessment ratios vary too far from the statewide average.

The purpose of this process is to promote reasonable uniformity in assessment ratios among all counties.

ON CAPITOL HILL

with "Charlie" Gubser

In 1783 while the Continental Congress was in session in Philadelphia, the hall in which it sat was surrounded by an angry mob of ragged, half-starved mutineers of the Continental Army. The Congress rushed a request for protection to the Philadelphia Executive Council. It refused and the police did nothing. So Congress disgustedly voted that its next session would move to the campus of Princeton University.

This experience stuck in the minds of the Congressmen, many of whom would later write our Constitution. Without a doubt it influenced the drafting of Article I, Section 8, Clause 17, of the Constitution which says Congress shall "exercise exclusive Legislation in all Cases whatsoever, f such District (not exceeding ten miles square) as may, ...become the Seat of the Government of the United States,.."

Following ratification of the Constitution, the states of Virginia and Maryland agreed to cede a ten mile square area as the seat of the U. S. government. Though it was clearly understood that Congress had exclusive lagislative power over the District, the existing local governments like Georgetown and Alexandria were permitted to continue the exercise of limited local powers. But even these rights proved harassing to the federal government. In the late 1860's Congress appropriated money to improve parks and grounds surrounding public buildings. When the livestock of Washington residents roamed over the grounds and destroyed most of the grass, trees and landscaping, Congress complained. The local District Board of Health issued an ordinance prohibiting livestock in the public domain. But within a week Washington's Board of Aldermen abolished the Board o Health and the livestock placidly ate on!

In 1871 Congress gave the District of Columbia complete home rule with an eleven man Council and a twenty-two member House of Delegates. But at the end of three years the district was bankrupt, the local government faced complete collapse, and teachers and employees were unpaid. The last bond of this indebtedness from this government was not finally paid off until 1951! So, in 1874 Congress was compelled to take over full operation of District government.

Personally, I would like to give District residents the right to make their own local decisions. Even though they settled in the federal city knowing that constitutionally it was under the control of the federal government, I still believe they should have home rule. But it must be subject to the national interest. Washington is the capital of all the people and belongs to all the people.

These are proposals which can grant home rule consistent with federal interest, but the Administration backed bill is not one of them.

Building to rise on orchard land

Members of the congregation of the First Christian Church of Campbell and well-wishers from this and other communities gathered for the groundbreaking services for the church that is soon to be erected on the site.

The ceremonies were simple and impressive under the bright glare of the mid-afternoon sun.

Mayor Charles Rose of Campbell extended official greetings to the church from the city and manned one of the shovels in the groundbreaking action.

Don Stram, the minister of the church, gave the welcoming talk. The invocation was offered by V. K. Allison and the benediction by Lowell Pendergraft. The dedicatory prayer was given by Leon Berg and the congregation was led in hymns by Keith Kent.

Ministers from other Church of Christ congregations in the valley extended their greetings.

Participating in the act of groundbreaking were members of the building committee and board members of the church.

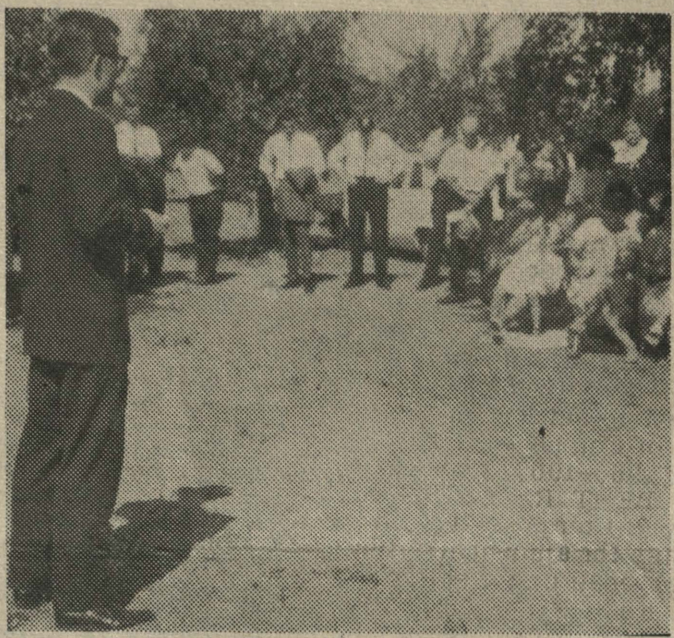
DIGGING IN--Pictured are four members of the First Christian Church of Campbell active in planning the building program for the church that will be erected at 1975 Pollard Road taking an active part on Sunday afternoon in the groundbreaking ceremonies by wielding the shovels. Left to right, Robert Watson, Bill Cox, Alf Pollestad and Frank Lindamood.



DEDICATORY PRAYER--Leon Berg, former minister of the First Christian Church of Campbell, gives the dedicatory prayer at the groundbreaking services on Sunday afternoon at the site on Pollard Road where the church will be built. The crowd in the shade of the trees of the orchard can be seen in the background. Present also for the ceremonies were ministers of nine Churches of Christ in the area.

On Thursday the 2nd. day of September, 1965 at 10:10 a.m. on the front steps of the Santa Clara County Court House, North First Street entrance, in the City of San Jose, County of Santa Clara, State of California, VALLEY TITLE COMPANY, formerly Valley Title Company of Santa Clara County, a corporation, Trustee, will sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in lawful money of the United States, the following described real property, situate in the City of Campbell, County of Santa Clara, State of California, and described as follows:

The Southerly 41.04 feet measured at right angles to the Southerly line of Parcel 3, as shown upon that certain Record of Survey map filed for record in the office of the Recorder of Santa Clara County, State of California, on November 20, 1962, in Book 154 of Maps, page 39.

Said sale will be made to satisfy the obligations secured by, and pursuant to the power of sale conferred in that certain deed of trust executed by Earl J. Messier and Betty L. Messier, his wife, to Valley Title Company of Santa Clara County, a corporation, as trustors, as Trustee for Calvin Wilson and Grace L. Wilson, his wife, in joint tenancy. dated August 30, 1963 and recorded Sept. 6, 1963 as beneficiaries, in Book 6181 of Official Records, at page 545, records of Santa Clara County, California.

Clara County, California.

Notice of Breach of said obligations and election to sell real property was recorded in the Office of the Recorder, said County and State on Nov. 16, 1964 in Book 6741 of Official Records, at Page 75.

This Notice is given in compliance with the written application made to the Trustee by said Beneficiaries.

Survey reveals occupational needs in Santa Clara county

In the future, job opportunities in Santa Clara County will be greatest in the areas of professional, technical, and service workers.

Facing educators today is the problem of securing employment for the most rapidly increasing age-group, those in the 15 to 24 year bracket.

These are among the major findings of a year-long study, "Occupational Needs and Their Educational Implications for Schools and Colleges in Santa Clara County," just completed. It was directed by Albert J. Riendeau, who, on July 1 was appointed dean of vocational-technical education at West Valley College.

OBJECTS

Objectives of the study were (1) to provide industry and schools with information for long-range planning, (2) to analyze present and future occupational needs in the county, (3) to identify school grade levels at which particular skills and competencies can best be developed, and (4) to assist junior colleges and other educational groups with cooperative planning to prevent duplication of effort. A total of 160 occupations were studied, showing surpluses, shortages, and those in balance.

Agencies involved in the study were the Santa Clara County Office of Education, Santa Clara County Planning Department, California State Employment Service, schools, other government organizations and industries.

Service workers in Santa Clara County--such as health services and food services, for example--have lagged behind the nation as a whole, the report noted, but with the leveling off in federal spending for space and military research and development, the need for skilled service workers will surpass the national level. The need will be particularly acute for the services of those who complete two-year training courses offered by the junior colleges. The report noted an especial need in the county for training at the junior college level in paramedical occupations.

DURABLE GOODS

Durable good manufacturing will continue to be the greatest single source of employment opportunity in the county, the report noted, and special emphasis will be placed on the acquiring of new skills. Wholesale and retail trade, as well as government occupations (federal, state and local) will continue to grow almost in direct proportion to population growth and consequently a continuing increase in school enrollments.

MAJOR ROLE

Evidence that the junior colleges will have a big role in placing and keeping the 15-24 age groups in profitable employment was reflected in:

1. Growth of the number of junior colleges--from two in 1960 to five by 1967 and an anticipated seven by 1970.

2. Junior college enrollment increases--from 4,400 in 1959 to 11,500 in 1965.

High school enrollments--from 27,000 in 1959 to 53,700 in 1965.
